

The ACLU
Southern California &
Westside Chapter

UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST
COMMUNITY CHURCH
of Santa Monica

invite you to a free screening of

TWO AMERICAS

With special guest,
film director,

JOHN HENION

Tuesday, October 22, 2013, 7:00 PM

TWO AMERICAS, from Emmy-winning Current TV's investigative Vanguard series, profiles a month in the lives of two families in very different income brackets, showing the growing economic disparity in America.

John Henion was awarded the Livingston Award for Young Journalists – the largest all-media, general-reporting prizes in the country and nominated for Genesis Award for the investigation into the illegal Tiger Trade in China.

Admission is free.

Voluntary donations will be collected for:

The Southern California ACLU

The UU Community Church of Santa Monica

The movie will be shown in Forbes Hall at

Unitarian Universalist Community Church of Santa Monica

1260 18th St, Santa Monica 90404 (corner of 18th and Arizona)

Parking in structure on 16th Street south of Arizona Ave. (look for signs)

Map

RSVP requested: aclulawestside1@yahoo.com or 310-390-6640

ACLU-SoCal: COMMITTED TO ECONOMIC JUSTICE