

Gratitude quotes—November

November 1. “Let us be grateful to the people who make us happy; they are the charming gardeners who make our souls blossom.” — Marcel Proust

November 2. At times our own light goes out and is rekindled by a spark from another person. Each of us has cause to think with deep gratitude of those who have lighted the flame within us. Albert Schweitzer

November 3. The essence of all beautiful art, all great art, is gratitude. Friedrich Nietzsche

November 4. One looks back with appreciation to the brilliant teachers, but with gratitude to those who touched our human feelings. The curriculum is so much necessary raw material, but warmth is the vital element for the growing plant and for the soul of the child. Carl Jung

November 5. I would maintain that thanks are the highest form of thought, and that gratitude is happiness doubled by wonder. Gilbert K. Chesterton

November 6. Gratitude is the fairest blossom which springs from the soul. Henry Ward Beecher

November 7. Feeling gratitude and not expressing it is like wrapping a present and not giving it. William Arthur Ward

November 8. If future generations are to remember us more with gratitude than sorrow, we must achieve more than just the miracles of technology. We must also leave them a glimpse of the world as it was created, not just as it looked when we got through with it. Lyndon B. Johnson

November 9. Gratitude helps you to grow and expand; gratitude brings joy and laughter into your life and into the lives of all those around you. Eileen Caddy

November 10. Gratitude bestows reverence, allowing us to encounter everyday epiphanies, those transcendent moments of awe that change forever how we experience life and the world. John Milton

November 11. No one who achieves success does so without acknowledging the help of others. The wise and confident acknowledge this help with gratitude. Alfred North Whitehead

November 12. Gratitude is the sign of noble souls. Aesop

November 13. One can never pay in gratitude: one can only pay 'in kind' somewhere else in life. Anne Morrow Lindbergh

November 14. We learned about gratitude and humility - that so many people had a hand in our success, from the teachers who inspired us to the janitors who kept our school clean... and we were taught to value everyone's contribution and treat everyone with respect.
Michelle Obama

November 15. Gratitude is the most exquisite form of courtesy. Jacques Maritain

November 16. Gratitude is one of the least articulate of the emotions, especially when it is deep.
Felix Frankfurter

November 17. All Americans owe a debt of gratitude to Dr. King for his bravery and commitment to civil rights and nonviolence that changed this nation - and world - for the better.
Eliot Engel

November 18. Gratitude is when memory is stored in the heart and not in the mind.
Lionel Hampton

November 19 “Cultivate the habit of being grateful for every good thing that comes to you, and to give thanks continuously. And because all things have contributed to your advancement, you should include all things in your gratitude.”
Ralph Waldo Emerson

November 20 “Let gratitude be the pillow upon which you kneel to say your nightly prayer. And let faith be the bridge you build to overcome evil and welcome good.”
Maya Angelou

November 21 “If the only prayer you said was thank you, that would be enough.”
Meister Eckhart

November 22 “I made cranberry sauce, and when it was done put it into a dark blue bowl for the beautiful contrast. I was thinking, doing this, about the old ways of gratitude: Indians thanking the deer they'd slain, grace before supper, kneeling before bed. I was thinking that gratitude is too much absent in our lives now, and we need it back, even if it only takes the form of acknowledging the blue of a bowl against the red of cranberries.”
Elizabeth Berg, Open House

November 23 “We must find time to stop and thank the people who make a difference in our lives.”
John F. Kennedy

November 24 “Piglet noticed that even though he had a Very Small Heart, it could hold a rather large amount of Gratitude.”
A.A. Milne, Winnie-the-Pooh

November 25 “You pray in your distress and in your need; would that you might pray also in the fullness of your joy and in your days of abundance.”
Kahlil Gibran

November 26. Some people grumble that roses have thorns; I am grateful that thorns have roses.
Alphonse Karr

November 27 “We can only be said to be alive in those moments when our hearts are conscious of our treasures.”
Thornton Wilder

November 28. Do not tell the man that is carrying you that he stinks.”
African Proverb

November 29. “I would love to believe that when I die I will live again, that some thinking, feeling, remembering part of me will continue. But much as I want to believe that, and despite the ancient and worldwide cultural traditions that assert an afterlife, I know of nothing to suggest that it is more than wishful thinking.
The world is so exquisite with so much love and moral depth, that there is no reason to deceive ourselves with pretty stories for which there's little good evidence. Far better it seems to me, in our vulnerability, is to look death in the eye and to be grateful every day for the brief but magnificent opportunity that life provides.”
Carl Sagan

November 30 “For each new morning with its light, For rest and shelter of the night, For health and food, for love and friends, For everything Thy goodness sends.”
Ralph Waldo Emerson
